SALLY COOKE YOUNG JOSEPHINE CEPHERS

The 3rd Annual Beauty Contest staged by St. Mark's Methodist Church, Montclair, N. J., Rev. W. A. Harewood, pastor, brought from across the river, one of the country's most noted exponents of beauty, Rose Meta, in private life Mrs. Joe Louis, to crown 17-year-old Aileen Leach "QUEEN" as first prize winner. The second and third winners (Standing l-r) Misses Judy Newsome and Patricia Boone, watch the proceedings, given a smile of commendation by last year's winner Miss Frances Rivers.

The sponsors, Mrs. Katherine Barrett, Miss Hallie Gill, given able assistance by the pastor's wife, Mrs. Inez Harewood.

- (TOP ROW-1-r) EULA GROBES, Roselle, EMILY MILES, Director, Newark, N. J., and Ann Jackson of Union, attired in fashionable gowns created by Dorothy Edwards, made the DOROTHY EDWARDS ORIGINALS annual show at Continental Ballroom, before the small but appreciative audience, a huge success.

Children's Services TRINITY CHAPTER #14, MASONIC ORDER PHA, Newark in recent event staged at Masonic Hall, Belmont Avenue, Newark, was just cause for pride by Prince Hall Masons in both the young girls, and sponsor (1-r-standing-3rd) Worthy Matron Mae Waldon, and her assistants (lft) P. M. Bennaye Ward, G. D. D. Wilhelmina Stapleton, Sister Mildred Smith (rt) and G. W. M. Alma B. Williams (center)

Urban League of Essex County

TINA BOHANNON (above), Guild member, and Robert Treat Jr. High School Guidance Counsellor aided greatly in the sale of reservations for the "Ten Commandments", at the Adams Theatre, Newark, November 21st, representing the Guild's annual benefit fund raising affair.

At a Party

3-yr old Kenneth McBeth (1st row center) and numbers of Fuld Neighborhood House kiddies enjoyed his natal day, because of (Standing-1-r) Mesdames Alexander, sponsor, McBeth, Eleanor Rowe, and Helen Reid, the director, Eunice Washington, Geraldine Smith.

Fashions

NEWS NATIONAL Thespians

"JAMAICA" COMES TO BROADWAY

With rave notes for night club singer, LENA HORNE, as star of the splashy musical "Jamaica". October 31st the show opened with the largest advance sale in the history of theatre. Among top ditties sung by Lena is a parody in praise of American electrical time saving gadgets.

HAROLD SCOTT

Son of Dr & Mrs Harold Scott of Orange, not only surprised family friends, but pleasantly so, in his chosen profession--THE THEATRE. He is now playing a supporting role in the much heralded show "A Land Beyond the River". At 22 years of age tis thought by his performance, he is well on the road to Broadway stardom.

VIVIAN G. ALLEYNE

Past Grand Basileus, Lambda Kappa Mu Sorority, passed from life into death, in early October at Baltimore Md., her home.

Church Gets White, Negro Joint Pastors

While pros and cons of integration swept the country in a holocaust of rioting, hatred and bigotry, even with racial tensions in Levittown, Pa. and rioting in Chicago, history was made on the religious front in Chicago.

Rev. Merrill D. Booker, a native of Jersey City, N. J., formerly pastoring in Summit, took his place with a white minister Rev Fred R. Tiffany to jointly pastor Normal Baptist, before a mixed congregation of some 250, in September.

Also in Chicago, the Rev. U. B. Blakeley of Philadelphia, on October 20th commenced as co-pastor of the oldest protestant church, the First Presbyterian.

GOING TO AFRICA

Mrs Gladys Ross, of Jersey City, mother-founder National Sorority of Phi Delta Kappa announces another trip around the World, to which she will serve as hostess. Last year she conducted a tour throughout Europe.

This year tourist will not only enjoy the beauty of England, France, as well as Switzerland, Italy, Portugal, but will go over into Nigeria, Ghana, Liberia and Dakar, Africa. The trip will take 43 days, July 12th to August 23rd, at a nominal charge. Mrs Ross suggests reservations commence at this time. Also-Travel now-and Pay Later.

League Launches Drive

Mesdames Rachal Jackson, Lois Jones and Omilee Jones, staged a successful Turkey dinner-party at the home of Mrs Lois Jones. Affair was their effort towards increasing the one dollar which was given each member of Bethany Baptist Church Woman's League, as a talent dollar to be used toward fund-raising. Mrs Margaret White, president of the League.

Leadership in Action

THOMAS SWANGIN, amiable Newark City detective, newly elected President of popular Batons, Inc. Carrying on the tradition of conviviality which has characterized previous affairs, was a most gracious host at recent November 8th Formal at Continental Ballroom, Newark.

HILTON DAVIS, Linden, N. J., son of Mrs. Martha Davis, State public health nurse, and the late Dr. Davis of Elizabeth. He is President of North End Tennis Club, County Committeeman of Linden, active in newly organized Linden branch of National Urban League. A splendid example of youth, active in planning better community living.

TIMOTHY STILL, President, William P. Hayes housing project Tenants Assn., Newark. Active and outspoken labor leader, staunch NAACP supporter. He has done much toward establishing good relationships among tenants of the project, as well as improving recreational facilities for youth.

GARLAND RUDD, one of Montclair's leading citizens, long active in civic affairs. Founded Rudd's dairy many years ago, which has established an enviable record for quality and service. Later opened Rudd's ice cream parlour, snack bar and restaurant in the south end of Montclair. Astute business acumen, integrity and a warm, sincere personality are attributes that attest to his success and popularity.

ALVA DURHAM, Newark, owner of one of the best known community landmarks, the ALCAZAR, in Central Ward. Affectionately called "Pop" by his many patrons and friends. One of the most traveled men in the State, having wandered thru such faraway places as Central America, Mexico and 47 States of the Union during his youth as the wanderlust beckoned. Held in high esteem by all because of his willingness to lend an ear to the needs of others, and to give of his means freely for worthy charities.

EDDIE HOWARDS, popular owner of the ballroom with the home-like atmosphere, CLUB HAROLD, Bloomfield Avenue, Newark. His generosity in aiding various clubs in the use of the facilities of Club Harold, has enabled many groups to have a merry time hosting their friends, yet balance the books far on the black side of the ledger at the close of the affair.

Jersey City NEWS BULLETIN

LOUISE TAYLOR

FRIENDS AND RELATIVES feted Waldron Giles in a welcome party on his return to civilian life, October 26th, after three years army life. Waldron says immediate plans include--selecting food from a menu--arising at noon--and amking his own decisions as to what to wear.

ANDY STANFIELD, after 12 years amateur track competion announced his retirement from activity in the amateur ranks. He was paid a tribute by friends and well wishers October 27th at Hotel Plaza. Idolized by millions who thrilled to his performances in making history as world's fastest human 1949-19 52, he was saluted as a living legend in track annals, with an incredible record of more than 1000 races in major world wide competition.

CHARLES GRAY, Zeta Phi Epsilon journalist announced his fraternity's 1st major project, since recent formation--a charity drive. Members busily fostered a drawing for $75. 00 and $25. 00 gift certificates, taking place November 16th. Proceeds benefitted needy families. Activities of this type spark the Frat plans, and certainly balance the scales on the J. D. problems.

INEZ PHILLIPS, daughter of Mr & Mrs Henry Phillips married John Durham, son of Mrs Russell Durham, October 21st at Mt Pisgah, Rev J.J. Jackson officiated. Nezie wore princess style gown of piccadilly lace and chiffon. The bridesmaids Marilyn Bryant, Judith Scarbough, Patricia Stallworth, Lucretia Jett, Ruby Phillips, all in velvet trimmed of varied autumn shades white chrystellete. Really a family affair!! Nezie's nieces as flower girls, her nephew the ring bearer, music by brother and sister-in-law Mr & Mrs Oscar Phillips.

Bride is Douglas College graduate, employed at State Board of Child Welfare, and groom is with a Bayonne, N. J. chemical company.

SURPRISE CLUB, INC. NEWS!! Sunday, October 28th feted six members in a Testimonial dinner at Masonic Temple, Jersey City. From Newark, charter member and chaplain four years Mrs Grace Grace; first woman president for three years Miss Vivian Boone; financial secretary nine years Mrs Florence Smith; Corresponding secy., and Entertainment chairman three years Mrs Lena Greene. Mr Daniel Taylor, sgt-at-arms and house committee chairman and Rodman Shields, all Jersey City, for invaluable services to club and community.

DR RANDOLPH JOHNSON, guest speaker spoke on four phases of our civic life in this period of integration, namely--Housing, Education, Job opportunities, Employment. Mrs Beatrice Jett, chairman, Miss Margaret V. Martin the president.

MRS NANIE DANIELS chaired the November 10th Thanksgiving services at Mt Pisgah AME Church, Rev J.J. Jackson, pastor. The club continues support to civic betterment, larger aid to NAACP, Door of Hope and Youth programs.

MISS VIVIAN BOONE, was entertainment chairman for the Hallowe-en party, November 2nd in the club rooms.

THE PARAGRONS thank friends for the support given their dance in September at Terrace ballroom, Newark. Watch for the Spring affair at the Celebrity Club, New York City, April 19th.

JERSEY CITY PROGRESSIVE CIVIC & SOCIAL LEAGUE INC., Atty Wm. N. Johnson, president, John Strickland, secy., James Knight, treas., Fred W. Martin, Executive board chr. Latest meeting included discussions on housing, water shortage, rehabilitation of blighted areas and taxes. The league now incorporated, held its initial public display of strength at a Cocktail matinee dance at Small's Paradise, New York, October 13th, with some 500 in attendance.

Plans of the League are under way to present to the City Commission, the public sentiment regarding importance of elected representatives giving audience to civic groups or individual citizens, who appear with bona-fide requests.

ORCHIDS ..

FROM LENNI

AFTER A BRIEF honeymoon and vacation "Orchids from Lenni" back bringing greetings from my husband Airman Leonard R. Hodges, Jr. stationed in San Antonio, Texas, where I vacationed.

EVERYONE treated me royally. Altho a hectic trip getting there, the train 24 hours late, due to a storm in Louisiana. Bridges and tracks washed out, roofs floating with bits of furniture, clothing and personal belongings, along the water. However, arrived safely, but panicky. Often we do not realize how fortunate we are until we've seen tragedy.

BACK in good ole Jersey, we'll see what has been happening**
